To Whom It May Concern;

Having recently achieved ISO14001:2004 with help from Smith Consultants Ltd; iSiS-Ex Limited would have no hesitation in recommending Colin Smith to anyone who needs help with their certification requirements.

Colin has a wealth of knowledge and experience, which is apparent when you start talking to him – he is a uniquely genuine person who puts the needs of the company first.

Colin has previously also carried our training in Lean Manufacturing, 5S and Problem Solving; again with this type of training iSiS-Ex Limited would not hesitate to recommend him.
